

NALACS

Thesis award

2008-2009

Have you completed an excellent MA thesis on Latin America or the Caribbean? NALACS, the Netherlands Association of Latin American and Caribbean Studies, invites you to submit your thesis to be considered for its annual award. Every academic year, NALACS awards a €500 prize to the best MA thesis on the region. Students or their supervisors can submit theses before this year's deadline of 1 September 2009. All disciplines are welcome.

The NALACS thesis award 2008-2009 operates according to the following criteria:

- The thesis must have been completed between 1 September 2008 and 1 September 2009 and must have received a grade of 7.5 or higher.
- The candidate must have graduated (or be about to graduate) from a Dutch university or academic institution.
- The thesis must be based on the candidate's own research, with a theoretical basis and use of primary sources.
- The thesis must be written in Dutch, English or Spanish.

The jury's selection of the winning theses will be based primarily on the following criteria: 1) scientific quality and originality; 2) style of writing and structure of the thesis; 3) social relevance of the topic.

Send three copies of your thesis to NALACS, c/o CEDLA, Keizersgracht 395-397, 1016 EK Amsterdam, before 1 September 2009, mentioning 'NALACS scriptieprijs 2008-2009'. The jury's decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into. For more information, e-mail nalacs@cedla.nl.
